Bill Benzie (Producer) - Bill has been involved with the Iron Mountain Stage Company in a number of shows since 2003 in various capacities of stage management, lighting assistant, and as a cast member in Christmas Carol. Drew Frommelt (Stage Manager) - Drew has worked behind the scenes on various Iron Mountain stage productions for a number of years, and has been the stage manager for several shows. He is thrilled to be working as a stage manager again to make Spring Mix a success.

Irene Dominique (Wardrobe) - It's always a fun time getting a show together and Ladies Garden Club was no exception. Armed with no wardrobe experience but a passion for fashion, martinis, chocolate and sex in the city, I felt up to the challenge. I hope I succeeded. This is my third production with IMSC; having produced and co-produced "A View From the Bridge" and "Barefoot in the Park". Each time I have met such nice people and talented performers and it has been a wonderful introduction into Ringwood and the community. Since 2001 I have lived on Skyline Lake with my sweet husband Joe, the lads Alex and Joe and our kitty Lilly. back nearly 30 years, her love of the stage has allowed her ham it up from the midwest to the east coast. I.M.S.C. productions include: The Odd Couple (for women), The Gondoliers, Oliver, Lend Me a Tenor (set), Girls of The Garden Club, who can remember everything...Thanks to Iron Mountain for the opportunity to assist again in another show!

She sends a special hello to her mother-in-law Jean.

Marie Cannici (Waitress) - Marie has performed in many shows with Iron Mt., West Milford Players, IACT and St. Catherine's PAG. What fun it was to play an "older" woman named "Birdie" in Marie's last Iron Mountain show Girls of The Garden Club. Her favorite role in her real life is "Birdy" to her seven grandchildren. Thank you cast for a fun show. As always Thanks to Crissey.

Jill McDonald (Wagner) - Jill McDonald is always happy to be in an Iron Mountain show and especially with people she has worked with before. She has appeared in a number of local productions with Iron Mountain and also with West Milford Players and Oakland Community Theatre. Thanks to Victor and to all the cast and crew and, as always, thanks to John for his continuing support of my thespian leanings.

Patty Loud (Betsy, Esther) - Patty is enjoying playing two very different roles in Spring Mix. She appeared in Iron Mountain's "The Girls of the Garden Club" as Ginger, "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever" as Mrs. McCarthy, and in "Annie" as Annette. Patty was also seen with the West Milford Players in "Noises Off" as Poppy and was musical director and accompanist for their production of "Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory". Patty wants to thank Victor and the cast and crew for a great "Spring Mix!" So what happens next? Who knows?

Barry Smith (Nelson) - This is Barry's third show with Iron Mountain. He has also appeared in productions of The West Milford Players, Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey and Studio 13 Productions.
